

School of Government

Seminar Program: Semester 2, 2009

2.00pm Fridays, Room 586, Arts Building

July 24

'Living up to our reputation:

Implications of fishery management failures in the Australian context'

Jon Nevill (PhD candidate, School of Government)

July 31

'Afghanistan after Obama's surge – success or quagmire?'

John Martinkus (School of English, Journalism & European Languages)

August 14

'The Lobbying Industry in Australia: Business as Usual, Abuses and Regulation'

Prof John Warhurst (School of Social Sciences, ANU)

August 21

'A political history of the OECD'

Tania Fothergill (PhD candidate, School of Government)

August 28

'NGOs, forum shopping and global governance'

Dr Hannah Murphy (School of Government)

Sept 11

'Human Trafficking: The Human Rights Dimension'

Prof Les Holmes

(School of Social and Political Sciences, University of Melbourne)

Sept 18

Honours work-in-progress sessions

Faculty of Arts Conference Room, Hbt and Ltn
(School of Government staff only)

Sept 25

*'A Responsibility to Defend, Twice (R2D2):
How states cheat on global human rights norms'*
Dr Matthew Sussex (School of Government)

Oct 2

Japan-Australia Relations

Dr David Walton (School of Asian Studies and International Relations, University of Western Sydney)

Oct 9

PhD confirmation seminars: Chavelli Sulikowski and Chris Baker
(School of Government staff only)

Oct 16

'U.S. Policy in Afghanistan and Pakistan'
Dr Anthony Cordesman
(Centre for International and Strategic Studies)

Nov 27

PhD confirmation seminars: Ben Atkins and Gerwin Otte
Faculty of Arts Conference Room, Hbt and Ltn
(School of Government staff only)

Dec 4

'Hard and soft policy instruments and Australia's greenhouse policy implementation: 1997-2007'
Aki Nakamura (PhD candidate, School of Government)

Dec 11

'Securing Transnational Oil in Southeast Asia'
Allison Casey (PhD candidate, School of Government)